

- To support and represent the students of my faculty to the best of my ability and support equality amongst all students regardless of ethnicity, age, gender, and sexual orientation.
- To act in the best interest of my faculty and represent their views and opinions as they advise.