

My name is Rashad Haque. I'm a Campbell Collegiate Alumni. I'm currently in my 3rd year in the faculty of Business Administration. A few things about myself, I love playing basketball, playing video games, eating pizza and wings, and of course, watching Netflix.

There are several reasons why I'm running for president. Just a few, my goal is to make student life easier, cheaper, and more fun. I've been attending this University for about two years on, and we really lack the motivation to hold great events on campus. I wanna empower clubs to hold many events through out the school year, to engage students and/or spread awareness regarding specific issues.

Whether that's an interfaith dialogue, or having a pyjama day, I would like to "spice up" student life and make University, so much more engaging.

I would like to improve public transit for students.

But just to wrap up, I just wanna improve University life for all students. University is not just a place to study, but it's also a place to have fun, discover yourself, meet new people and try new things out.
