1. Introduction
The University of Regina recognizes the importance of use of its various open spaces in promoting a vibrant campus. These promotion activities must comply with all fire and building code requirements, all URSU and U of R policies and be presented in a safe, respectful and non-discriminatory manner.

The University of Regina has delegated the routine administration of this policy and the specific spaces dedicated for promotional activities to the University of Regina Students’ Union (URSU). This document defines that administration.

3. Policy

3.1. Corridor Use
Groups who congregate in the corridors or around a table must not substantially obstruct the flow of traffic throughout the university. Whether the obstruction is substantial or not is at the sole discretion of URSU and the University of Regina Campus Security. URSU is entitled to restrict corridor behaviour and/or cancel any further table bookings in the event of repeated violations.

3.2. Table Use within Corridors

URSU manages table space in the Riddell Centre, the Classroom Building, and the Laboratory Building. These spaces are available for booking by all URSU members as well as members of the public. The following restrictions apply to table bookings:

<table>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Riddell Center</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Classroom Building</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Laboratory Building</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Individuals/groups booking tables are limited to no more than 2 tables at a time in each location.
2. Tables cannot be moved from their location without approval from the URSU Staff Designate.

3.3. Table Fees

</tr>
</tbody>

1. Prices above do not include GST.
2. Applications on behalf of another applicant type will be treated as that applicant type, e.g. an individual tabling about their personal business will be treated as a for-profit individual and an individual tabling on behalf of a not-for-profit will be treated as a not-for-profit.
3. Individuals fundraising for individual, non-academic purposes will be treated as a For-profit Individual.

Additionally, all applicants are required to pay a $50 deposit (including GST) per table rented. This deposit is refundable upon the completion of the rental if the table is:
1. Left in the appropriate location,
2. Undamaged,
3. Reasonably clean.

URSU has sole discretion on determining when the deposit should be refunded. If the applicant does not visit the URSU Front Desk by the end of the business day on the last day of their rental, the applicant will be eligible for half of their original deposit. If the applicant does not visit the URSU Front Desk by the end of the business day on the last day of their rental, the applicant agrees to forego their whole deposit.

3.4. Content

All Tabling Material approved by URSU must not be in violation of the Saskatchewan Bill of Rights, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, all University of Regina By-laws and/or policies (most often the Respectful University Policy), and all applicable municipal, provincial, and federal laws.

Tabling Material which may be perceived as being discriminatory, offensive, denigrating, demeaning, or exploitative on the basis of gender, sexual orientation, age, race, class, religion, creed, ancestry, country of origin, ethnicity, or other grounds shall be deemed to be in violation of this policy, and will not be permitted to be posted in or around URSU space(s), including URSU tables. Tabling Material must also conform with the spirit of creating a positive space for students on campus.

Any Tabling Material which is to be hung on adjacent walls must be hung with painter’s tape to prevent damaging the wall. Scotch tape, sticky tack, pins, etc. are strictly forbidden.

3.5. Approval Process

All table bookings are handled exclusively by the URSU Front Desk or the URSU Staff Designate. Bookings shall typically be handled on a first-come, first-serve basis with priority given to URSU bookings, followed by student groups (Centres, Societies and Clubs), with the lowest priority being given to other groups. All bookings are subject to the following process:

1. Applicants can call, email, or visit the URSU Front Desk. The applicant will request the dates, times, and table locations that they desire.
2. If the desired dates, times, and table locations are available, the applicant will provide their name, email address, and phone number, as well as the name of the event or organization they are representing (where applicable). The URSU Front Desk will create a table booking with this information and assign that booking a specific table number at the time of booking.
3. On the first day of that booking, the applicant must visit the URSU Front Desk before beginning tabling activities. The applicant will fill out the URSU Table Booking form and will then be provided the table number at which they must sit. URSU cannot guarantee that a specific table location will be available at the time of the rental.

3.6. Blackouts
From time to time it becomes necessary for URSU to block all non-URSU table bookings. This is typically done in order to advertise for elections or by-elections, as well as for Welcome Week and Frost Week. Approval for a table blackout must either come from the URSU General Manager or the URSU Staff Designate.

3.7. Cancellations
From time to time it becomes necessary for URSU to cancel table bookings. This is typically done in order to advertise for elections or by-elections, as well as for Welcome Week and Frost Week. In some cases, table bookings may be canceled due to overbooking. Approval for cancellation of a table booking must either come from the URSU General Manager or the URSU Staff Designate.

In the event that a booking is canceled, the booking applicant will be notified as soon as possible and other accommodations will be arranged whenever possible. URSU is under no obligation for the applicant’s losses in the event of a canceled table booking.
