

Ziyang Li (Zeo) is a third-year University student in Psychology at the Faculty of Arts.

Prior to his appointment as a member of the University Council and VP of the Chinese Students Scholars Association (CSSA), he served two years as Newcomer Youth Program volunteer at the Regina Open Door Society, working on various roles, including youth support, multi-communities engagement. As a member of the University Council, Ziyang Li aims to focus on student representation, support the diverse communities at the University of Regina.