6. ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

   a. Board orientation and professional development - Carl Flis addressed: Board members need to ensure they are taking advantage of orientation and training sessions. This has not been happening optimally to date and it has both monetary and operational costs URSU, which in some cases pose ongoing challenges and threats to the organization’s effectiveness.

   b. URSU Townhall results update - Gurjinder Singh Lehal addressed with ‘thank yous’ to specific members of the board for their help and discussed plans to continue moving forward, improve engagements, and leverage these town halls to the benefit of UofR Students.

   c. Social Media support by the Board - Carl Flis asked the board to help spread and expand the reach of USU social media posts - Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, etc. - as doing so improves the efficacy of URSU’s social media efforts and therefore the broader work of URSU.

   d. Funding request from Psychology Graduate Student Association - Ziyang Li addressed. The Psychology Graduate Student Association made a request but URSU has a joint funding agreement with the Graduate Student Association (GSA) and graduate associations need to use that route to access funding.
